C. OF C. BANQUET AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Next Tuesday evening at 6:30 the Chamber of Commerce banquet will be served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church in the basement of the church and this will open the big membership campaign to get new members for this organization.

The banquet will be well worth attending and everybody is invited. Tickets may be obtained from M. A. Fletcher at the Fairmont Trust company building, from A. Howard Fleming at the Chamber of Commerce building and from the A. G. Martin book store. Charles W. Evans will also have tickets for sale. There will be a dollar apiece. Speeches and Rotary club music will furnish the entertainment. Reservations are being made now and those who make them first will be sure of a place, as the basement room at the Presbyterian church can accommodate only so many.

All teams which have been selected to conduct the canvass for members will be given cards bearing the names of those they must visit on Tuesday night and work will begin at once. The teams appointed are:

First Ward—Chairman, John S. Scott; H. P. Robinson, Fred L. Jenkins, J. R. Smouse, L. C. Minor, W. A. Husted.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT NORMAL OPENS SUNDAY

Dr. Aspinall of Wesleyan to Preach the Baccalaureate Sermon.

The commencement week festivities of the Fairmont State Normal school will be formally launched in this city tomorrow morning when Dr. Richard Aspinall head of the department of Theology of Wesleyan seminary will deliver to the Senior class the annual baccalaureate sermon. Dr. Aspinall is governor of the Rotary club for the Sixth district and the local Rotary club will attend the services in a body.

The following program will be observed at the Sunday morning services:

Invocation.
Solo, "Eye Hath Not Seen"—Pauline Reed, '02, from "The Holy City"; Alfred G. Gaul.

Offeratory.
Announcements.
Sermon, Dr. Richard Aspinall, D. D. "Lift Thine Eyes" from "Elijah" by Mendelssohn, Lucy Rex, Mary Sturm, Mildred Maphel, Harriet Schroeder.

Benediction.
The baccalaureate service will launch the programs of the 49th annual commencement of the school and from the school on Thursday morning at ten o'clock a class of eighty-five young women and men will be graduated. On this occasion Dr. Frank P. Grave, dean of the school of education of the University of Pennsylvania, will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Grave is one of the noted educators of the United States and the Normal school officials have been fortunate in securing him for this occasion. In addition to the address of Dr. Grave, Max Donner, a talented violinist will give two groups of selections. The diplomas will be presented by State Superintendent of Schools M. P. Shawkey, or some other member of the Board of Regents, who can be here on this occasion.

On Monday evening the last number of the school lecture course will be given when Frances Ingram celebrated contralto will appear. The following programs will be given during the remainder of the week:

Tuesday evening the senior short course class will present its annual play, "The Wishing Ring," which is the title of the entertainment and this promises to be one of the best things of the week.

Wednesday the senior class will present its class day program. A very unique program is being prepared for this occasion and a great deal of fun is promised the audience.

On Thursday evening at 6 o'clock the annual alumni reunion and banquet will take place. President H. C. Tothman of the alumni association is completing the arrangements for this event which will mark the close of the commencement.

Two circumstances militated against the securing of citizenship papers by Michael Prezilio Thursday when he appeared for examination before Judge William S. Raymond in the Circuit court. One was the notion that President Wilson and Governor Cornwell, respectively, make the federal and state laws and the other that one of his witnesses claimed that his father had brought him to this country when he was quite young and that his father had become a citizen, but could not furnish proof of that claim. Prezilio's case was continued until the next term of court, the other fourteen applicants passing the examination.

Jack Noltey, morning at police court drew $5.25 as fine with an elaborate promise from him that no more threats nor any other stuff with a kick "if only you'll have a little mercy, mayor," he pleaded. The mayor let him off with a fine though this trip up was not the first, but he promised him most positively that next time he would get a jail sentence with plenty of chance to keep away from temptations. Jack asked for a chance to get hold of his fine and was agreeably surprised to learn that his landlady had left the necessary amount and a little change besides. "I'll just take the change," said Jack. "I'll give her the change myself," replied the chief so you won't be tempted to buy any more booze. "I didn't quite seem the thing but Jack was forced to agree to the proposition.

Fifty Ferguson who received a ten day sentence on fourth charge of being drunk, appeared for a short time in court this morning while an officer asked in his behalf that he be allowed to work the new small circus which will be in the city June 19 on condition that he report back to jail when it is over. The chief said this would be all right. No other offenders appeared.

NEW SWIMMING SCHEDULE.
Next Tuesday, June 8, a new schedule will start for the Y. M. C. A. woman's department as follows: Swimming classes for the Juniors will be at two o'clock; High school girls at adults at three; Industrial girls at six and business women at seven o'clock.

The first Young Men's Christian Association was organized at London in 1914.

EAST SIDE NEWS

East Side Churches.

On Sunday morning at the First M. P. church an "Old Folks" service will be held. Rev. Benjamin Stout, of Bridgeport, an aged minister of the church and a former pastor of the First M. P. church, will deliver the sermon to the old folks.

At the Palatine Baptist church new members will receive the Right Hand of Fellowship at the morning service. Rev. J. C. Buckley, pastor of the Diamond street M. P. church, will preach the annual sermon to the Home Missions society at the evening service at the Diamond street church.

These services are all services of special interest and in all probability will be attended by large audiences.

Class Entertained.
The Willing Workers' class of the Central Christian church was most delightfully entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Beryl Minor at her home in Vermont avenue. Plans for the future work and welfare of the class were discussed and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Returned Home.
Mrs. Roy Hinebaugh, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Utterback since Sunday, returned to her home at Keyser Friday evening.

New Ice Cream Parlor.
C. E. Meredith, the popular Morgantown avenue grocer, has opened an ice cream parlor and confectionery in connection with his store. A soda fountain has been installed and soft drinks will be furnished also. The place of business is located at the Owens spot on the East Park car line and will no doubt be well patronized.

Home from Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Drummond have returned from a two weeks trip in the West. They visited the former's brother at Fort Wayne, Ind., and his sister at Angola, Ind. They spent two days at Detroit, Mich., and came by boat to Cleveland and from there home. They were also in Canada for a short time.

Paul Williams is very ill with tonsillitis at his home in Vermont avenue.

Oswald Henderson, of Taylor county, has been a business visitor in the city the past few days. Mr. Henderson purchased a Maxwell automobile while here. He returned home today.

Mrs. Thornton Malone has returned to her home at Grafton after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Dorsey Popple. Mrs. Popple accompanied her home Friday returning Friday evening.

Mrs. Clarence Malone, of Morgantown avenue, is quite ill with measles. Elmer Morris, of Cochrane street, spent Friday at Grafton.

Mrs. Cunningham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Yeager, in Diamond street.
